ABOUT ME

• Hello, my name is Derek Everett Bull. I am 17 years of age and I am a pursuing Model/ Actor trying to make it big. I Have loved acting since i was little but as I have grown older i found my real love in the acting field is screen acting. I would love nothing more to become an "A" list celebrity. I am currently without an agent, however have still managed to get a role in an upcoming movie known as "The Cult of the Iron Cobra" all on my own. I am a jack of all trades and what i mean by that is I can do all genres of acting. From Comedic like Steve Carell, Action like Tom Cruise, to genres like Horror /Fantasy/ and Thriller films like Jhonny Depp. I can do it all and making a fool out of myself is never a fear of mine but more so a hobby.

• However besides seeking out my dream of becoming a big movie star I seek out to achieve another dream of mine, becoming a model. As we know, many stars today like for an example, Ashton Kutcher, started out a model before he made it big and I want to do the same. I am constantly told I have the face of a model as well as the attitude. People on the streets have actually come up to me and told me this as well as employees at stores, teachers in school, friends and family and even acquaintances. Not only do I have the talent but the passion, the strive, the motivation and know how to grab people's attention and keep it to. I love the attention of it all and I honestly can't see myself doing anything else but modeling and screen acting.
